DELPHOS CITY ENGINEER MAY LOSE PAY

G. O. P. MEETS IN CLEVELAND ON JUNE 10

Convention City and Date Selected by National Committee

DELEGATES APPORTIONED

Plan to Curtail Voting Power of South Overturned

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — The Republican national convention of 1924 will assemble in Cleveland on June 10, and its delegate strength will be apportioned virtually on the old time basis of full representation for the south as well as the north.

A carefully drafted plan to curtail the voting power of those southern states which belong to the Democratic solid south was overturned today by the national committee just before selection of the time and place for the convention had been made final.

In 1921 the reapportionment program had been given the approval of committee and the reversal was voted today over the protests of those who declared a reconsideration would be interpreted by the country as an effort to increase the delegates strength of states likely to cast their votes for President Coolidge.

The committee also decided to recommend to the 1924 convention that women be given an equal status with men as committee members and that one man and one woman from each state be chosen to serve on a basis of parity as national committeemen.

Selection of Cleveland as the convention city had been virtually certain since a preference for it was expressed by the managers of the Coolidge campaign. Chicago, previously considered a likely choice, was withdrawn when the desires of the Coolidge men became known and only nominal efforts were made on behalf of Des Moines, and of San Francisco, the home city of Senator Hiram Johnson.

On the vote Cleveland received 39, San Francisco 10 and Des Moines 1. The votes for San Francisco came from California, Colorado, Idaho, Nevada, New Jersey, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Wisconsin and Hawaii. New Mexico voted for Des Moines.

DELEGATE PLAN
The delegate apportionment plan finally adopted today provides for a total of 1,110 delegates in next year's convention compared to 984 in 1920, the increase largely going to northern states under a provision that each state carried by Harding in the 1920 election shall have three extra delegates at large.

The new plan will give each congressional district one delegate regardless of the Republican vote. Under the proposed reapportionment of 1,036 delegates, Mississippi and South Carolina would have received no district delegates but only four delegates at large and under the same plan other Southern states also would lose district delegates.

Senator Pepper, T. Coleman Dunt of Delaware and southern committee members declared the national convention representation should use the congressional district as a unit as a matter of justice.

Every congressional district should have at least one delegate, they asserted. Joseph W. Tolbert, committeeman for South Carolina, in the course of an impassioned address declared that southern Republicans were "just as good as northern Republicans," and Mrs. Lindsey Patterson of Winston-Salem, N. C., associate member, said she wished to see President Coolidge elected and deplored prejudice against the south.

"This is the first time we have had a chance to build up a strong Republican party in the south," Mrs. Patterson said. "Don't make it too hard for us."

Another resolution adopted today by the committee looks to equal rights and power in the national committee for associate women members who now have no vote in committee proceedings. The resolutions by Hamilton S. Kean of New Jersey, provides for a recommendation that the 1924 convention invest the associate women members with full powers so that the national committee would be composed of one man and one woman member from each state and territory.

Lima Election Costs Doubled

Co-ed Pays Her Way As "Date Fixer"

'Miss Cupid' Charges Bashful Boys 25 Cents; Girls 50 Cents

EMPORIA, Kas. — (United Press) — Miss Margaret Markley, Emporia college beauty, today brought timid co-eds and bashful suitors together at bargain prices.

Incidentally, Miss Markley, who advertises herself as "Miss Cupid," launched a business experiment which she claims will keep her in spending money the remainder of her college career.

At the Markley Dating Agency, which she operates single-handed, "Miss Cupid" arranged dates for scores of satisfied clients, at the nominal charge of 25 cents for men students and 50 cents for co-eds.

"I charge the girls more, because it is a good investment for them," she explained. "Any boy who will pay two bits for a date will pay two dollars to make it good."

3 PERSONS ARE SHOT AT DANCE

Jealous Husband Runs Amuck in Home at Louisville

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — (Associated Press) — John George, 26, insurance agent, shot and probably fatally wounded his wife, fatally wounded Eugene Coats, 17, Mrs. George's partner, and killed himself at a dance in the home of his mother-in-law here a few minutes after midnight today. That George was crazed with jealousy because his wife had refused a dance with him and was dancing with Coats, was the theory advanced by investigators who sought a motive for his act.

"I had been expecting this," he had threatened it before," Mrs. George was quoted as having declared after she and Coats had been taken to a hospital.

Coats died soon after removal to the hospital.

DANCE REFUSED

Mrs. George's mother, at whose home the dance was held, said George apparently was in a happy mood early in the evening. Later, however, he became enraged when he saw Mrs. George and Coats dancing together, after his wife had refused to dance with him. He left the house, but returned a short time later when he called his wife into the front yard and shot her.

George was said by witnesses then to have entered the house, singled out and shot Coats and fired twice at other dancers. He then shot himself, dying instantly.

WARNING ISSUED BY AUDITOR

$700,000 Embarrassment Faces Lima, Churchill Says

Unless the city gets a fair and just reapportionment of property values that will be available by 1925 the city is going to be put in an embarrassing position in the matter of re-issuing $700,000 worth of assessment bonds, City Auditor C. H. Churchill notes, City Auditor C. H. Churchill said Wednesday morning.

He said that in May and October of 1925 the city will have notes coming due amounting to $700,000. There is no possible way, according to his figures, by which the city will be able to retire these notes unless there is a reapportionment effective by 1925.

Auditor Churchill has been advised by the city solicitor that assessment bonds, issued before the city adopted the practice of putting the improvement bonds on the general tax duplicate, can be taken care of without recalling them and retissuing them as general tax bonds.

VETERAN ON TRIAL

Charged With Murdering Woman at Piqua

PIQUA — (United Press) — Frank Muto, 38, world war veteran, launched his defense today in his trial for the murder of Mrs. Gertrude Grubb, 38.

Muto declared Mrs. Grubb, at whose home he ate, cast a strange spell over him by adulterating his food with her own blood.

Muto's story is that Mrs. Grubb soon tired of toying with him, but that the spell under which she had placed him continued.

VOGELIN NOT KIDNAPER, IS BELIEF HERE

Birth Case Suspect Held for Further Investigation

DESCRIPTIONS DON'T TALLY

But Blood Stains Continue to Stir Police Inquiry

That William Vogelín, 20, New York salesman, is not Harry Williams, fugitive kidnaper, of Rose Borth, 12, of Chicago, was the belief expressed by Police Chief Lanker in a telegram sent Tuesday to Police Chief Morgan A. Collins, of Chicago.

Vogelin does not tally with the description of Williams, who is described as between 30 and 35 years old; weight, 140; 5'10" in the right eye; stooped shouldered and bad lower teeth. Vogelín says his age is 20 but he looks at least seven years older. He is three inches taller than the fugitive for whom a nation wide search has been started. His teeth are good, but in weight he corresponds with the description of Williams.

From property taken upon his arrest, police have discovered that Vogelín lived with his sister, Mrs. E. M. Haley, at 3825 W. Congress st., Chicago. The address of his mother in New York City is given as 465 W. 154th st. Prior to his departure from Chicago, Vogelín borrowed money from the Morris bank, $52.85, of which was in his pockets when taken off "blind baggage" at the Pennsylvania station Monday night.

Blood stains on clothing worn by Vogelín aroused police suspicion and they are holding him pending further investigation, which will extend into both New York and Chicago. The suspect told police a plausible story, but he is not to be given his liberty until police are satisfied he is not wanted on some charge.

TINNER BELIEVED ASLEEP, DEAD

Heart Attack Fatal to Man at Work on Roof Here

The lifeless body of John Thomas Miller, 60, tinner, of 820 W. High st., was found on the roof of an implement shed at the Hamilton Farm west of Lima, by fellow workmen at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday. Death was due to heart trouble.

Miller had been engaged in putting a tin roof on the shed and was alone when death occurred. A man working on the ground saw Miller lying on the roof but thought him to be asleep. Several minutes later when workmen went up to awaken him, they discovered he was dead.

Miller was a pioneer resident of Lima, having been born here November 16, 1863. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. Lodge and Central Church of Christ. Surviving are two sons, John Miller, of 451 Hazel ave., Herbert Miller, of Miami, Florida and one daughter, Elizabeth Miller, of Springfield, Ohio. Both brothers, Charles and Joseph Miller, both residing in Lima, also survive.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed pending word from the son in Miami.

ARMORY SURVEY TO BE MADE

State Officer is Coming Here to Make Investigation

Col. John C. Volka, assistant adjutant general of the state, will be in Lima Thursday to look up the national guard armory situation here, according to advices received late Tuesday evening by Major Frank H. Hume.

Major Hume Tuesday made a survey of the city with a view of ascertaining what armory rentals for the headquarters and the infantry companies will cost. He found that the state will have to pay $3,000 rental in 1924 just for these two companies. Besides these Capt. Neil Poling's battery of field artillery must be housed next year and his will take another good sized sum, officials say.

Tuesday evening Major Hume had Col. Volka on the long distance telephone and told him the cheapest armory rental in 1924 for the two companies will be $3,000. Col. Volka replied that he will be in Lima Thursday to look over the situation.

Reports purporting to come from Columbus that Lima had been refused an armory for 1924 are not in any way confirmed, so far as local guard officers know. Major Hume said Wednesday. He does not expect any decision from the state armory board until after Col. Volka has made his visit here. Unconfirmed reports from Columbus said that Dayton, Youngstown and Canton were to get the three armories next year and Lima one in 1925.

FIGURES FOR 1924 REVEAL BIG INCREASE

Board of Supervisors Files Budget With City Commission

VOTING WILL COST $14,370

Former Bills to be Checked to Discover Reason

Cost of elections in Lima in 1924 are going to be about 100 per cent higher than ever before according to estimates for the year furnished City Manager Bingham Wednesday by deputy state supervisors of elections for Allen-co.

Figures sent by the board to the city for 1924 show a total estimate cost of $14,370 while heretofore, according to Bingham, the elections have never cost more than $7,500. It is particularly unfortunate, he said that there should be such a tremendous increase in costs in the very year when the city's operating funds are at their lowest ebb.

TWO PARTS
The estimate of the board is divided into two parts, January to July and July to December. For the first part the board estimates salaries at $1,300, postage and stationery at $100; registrars for the presidential primary in April $1,120; rentals of 70 precincts, less 8 free ones, $620; cost of securing election places, $50, and incidentals at $100.

For the second half of the year the total estimate submitted by the board to the city is $11,680, which includes the following salaries, $1,500; postage and stationery, $100; printer's copies of registered voters, $1,200; pay of registrars for August primary and November election in 70 city precincts, $5,040; rentals of voting booths in 70 precincts for both August primary and November election, $1,240; 70 new sets of registration books, $1,750; cost of securing leases and putting up broadsides, $150, and incidentals, $100.

BILLS EXAMINED
City Officials said Wednesday that they cannot account for the tremendous increase in the cost of elections next year. They will check up former bills and compare them with the 1924 estimates in an effort to find out where the increase is, Bingham said Wednesday.

Officials point out that as the city will receive only a little more than $85,000 from the county in taxes to run the city, this demand for $14,000 will decrease the amount of money for operation to just a little more than $70,000 and will further handicap the city in its work.

SENATE REMAINS IN DEADLOCK

Election of Committee Head Still Blacked by Insurgents

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Although there was a break in the ranks of the supporters of Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, the Republican insurgent leader, the senate remained in deadlock today on the first ballot for the election of a chairman of the interstate commerce committee.

Senator Cummins, Republican, Iowa, and Smith, Democrat, were tied at 40 votes each, while LaFollette received three votes. Senators Brookhart, Iowa, and Frazier, North Dakota, Republicans, and Shipstead and Johnson, Farmer-Labor, Minnesota, voted for Smith, but there also was a break in the Democratic ranks with Senator Bruce of Maryland voting for Cummins.

Senators Howell and Norris, Nebraska, and Ladd (North Dakota) Republicans, voted for LaFollette. On the second ballot Smith fell only one short of election, receiving 41 votes to 39 for Cummins and two for LaFollette. Bruce continued to vote for Cummins, while Ladd, Republican, North Dakota, joined the insurgent group voting for Smith.

On the third ballot the vote was Smith 41; Cummins 40 and LaFollette 2.

Senators Norris and Howell continued to vote for LaFollette and Bruce for Cummins.

After the third ballot adjournment was taken until noon Saturday but balloting will not be resumed until next Monday.

FEDERAL INQUIRY LOOMS HERE

Fight on Rum Running Seen as Result of Toledo Quiz

Investigation by federal authorities of the rum traffic along the Dixie highway may be launched as result of testimony to be given by Al. C. Smith, deputy sheriff Wednesday, before the federal grand jury now in session.

Smith was subpoenaed Tuesday night to go to Toledo and testify before the jury.

While Smith is said to have admitted that he is to testify in regard to a number of liquor cases sent to Toledo from Allen-co, it was also hinted Wednesday that he may be quizzed in regard to some other matters.

Among them may be the rum and beer traffic that is flowing north and south over the Dixie. Smith has been on duty when a number of heavy trucks laden with beer and whiskey have been wrecked accidentally and were hauled into Lima. In some instances the drivers have escaped. Others have been arrested.

Smith also has assisted in the capture of several notorious rum runners, at least one of whom was held to the federal grand jury. He also participated in a series of wholesale raids made in the western end of the county during the past fall.

Federal authorities are said to be very anxious to break up the rum running, by which Ohio is constantly inundated with deluges of Canadian and Scotch whiskeys, French champagnes, and English ale and beer.

MISTAKES IN ASSESSMENT CAUSE, CLAIM

Council Recommends that Money Due be Withheld

ORDINANCE FOUND INCORRECT

Code Returned Five Times for Correction, is Assertion

Still finding errors or alleged errors at the fifth appearance of an assessing ordinance, Delphos city council Tuesday night recommended that the city auditor and service director pay no more money to City Engineer Carl Simons until such troubles with ordinances cease.

Council's expression of opinion was to the effect that enough money should be deducted from any due the engineer to reimburse the city for any extra expense incurred in making corrections and for loss of interest incurred by delays caused by errors.

TREASURER GETS KICK

Assessing ordinances adopted for weeks ago to provide for the cost of improving S. Main and S. Pierce sts caused the trouble. Four property owners on S. Main-st and five on S. Pierce-st have entered protests with the city treasurer against the foot frontage listed against them in the ordinances, some claiming too much and others not enough.

Council Tuesday night discussed a communication from the treasurer inquiring whether he should accept payment on the basis of the figure in the ordinance or on what the property owners' deeds show they own. It was decided that the only legal method is to follow the ordinance.

Engineer Simons accordingly was instructed to go over the situation again and report to City Solicitor W. S. Kimball, listing all errors found, the solicitor to draw amendments to the ordinances to make the corrections.

One man says he owns 49 feet and the assessing ordinance does not show it. Another was assessed for 72 feet and declares he owns 76 feet. Another is assessed for 85 feet and has but 82.84 feet, he claims. Another says he is assessed for 100 feet and owns but 50, as he holds the other 50 some time ago. In two cases, the parties claim one dollar too much as assessed against them and in another case the assessment is $5 short of what it should be. One man says he is assessed for 65 feet and has but 65 feet, three inches.

END IS NOT YET

Four persons protested their assessment on the ground that the cost of the improvement exceeds the value of the property against which the improvement is assessed, and declare that under the law they can be assessed only one-third the value of the property after the improvement cost has been added.

That means the city will have to pay the other two-thirds, in cases where the parties protesting did not sign a petition for the improvement. In one of these cases it was admitted by the owners that probably payment would be made according to the ordinance, and there is about $80 difference, and the property is alleged to be worth much more than it was 10 years ago when the tax valuations were made.

MYSTERY DEATH IS INVESTIGATED

Body of Farm Hand Found in Barn Near Bowling Green

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio — (United Press) — Mysterious circumstances surrounding the death of John Grecho, 37, farm hand, found shot above the heart, are being investigated by Sheriff Irvin Rietzel and Coroner J. C. Vetterhll.

Grecho's body was found by his employer, Martin Tomasek, with a shotgun wound above the heart, wrapped in blanket in a barn. Fifty feet outside the barn lay a shotgun, both barrels discharged. A trail of blood led to the spot where the body was found.

Investigation showed that the one barrel had been fired at a post on a porch of the farm house and the holes made by the shot were plastered up with mud.

Officials declare it seems impossible Grecho could have crawled so far from the gun and wrapped himself in the blanket after being fatally wounded.

PUPILS TO CHANGE BUILDINGS

Central to be Home of Faurot Students, Board Decides

SHIFT DUE FOR FEBRUARY

Razing Begins on Completion of Franklin Junior

Pupils at Faurot grade school, S. McDonald and W. Elm-sts., will attend classes in Central High school building during the building of the new Faurot school, members of the board of education stated Tuesday night at the semi-monthly meeting.

Razing of the old Faurot building will not begin until the east and west wings of the Franklin Junior high school have been completed, which will be some time in February. Upon completion of this work the task of razing the Faurot building will begin immediately.

Bids on the new building will be opened at 1 p. m. Friday by the board of education. Providing bids are accepted members of the board will request immediate construction in order that the Faurot building will be ready for the opening of school next September.

EAST WING READY SOON

East wing of the Franklin Junior high school will be completed soon after the Christmas holidays. This will make available the boys' gymnasium on the basement floor, three class rooms on the first floor, which will contain seats with tablet arms and the study hall on the second floor which will be equipped with desks and will have a capacity of 170.

Completion of the Faurot grade school, which is to cost approximately $160,000, equipped, will mark the completion of the building program of the present board.

Progress was reported by contractors on the four schools now under construction.

The gymnasium at South High school is expected to be ready in February. The cement floor will be poured this week and after allowance of about three weeks has been made for the floor to dry the double flooring of lumber will be laid. All of the new building of South High is now under roof.

NEW SWITCHBOARD

The board of education has offered to the Westworth Dean Electric Co. to install a new switchboard in the basement of Central building.

Present switchboard is overloaded and as a consequence is considered unsafe in that hot wiring could damage equipment, such as motors and insulation, causing a complete interruption in the entire building. The new switchboard, which will cost $207, will be of large capacity so that overloading of fuses caps will not be necessary. It will be installed during the Christmas vacation.

Carter & Carroll submitted an offer to the board to supply 132 shades in the Franklin Junior high school building at a cost of $295. The shades would be installed in the center of the window casing, allowing one shade to pull up from the center and the other to pull down from the center. The offer was referred to the contractor.

In class rooms where shades are used that pull down from the top, teachers find it necessary to pull the shades down to the full extent to keep the sun from shining on the pupils. The electric lights when must be used. The board favors the type of shade that can be operated from the center of the window frame.

EQUAL PAY FOR SCHOOL TEACHERS VOTED DOWN

BOSTON — Equal pay for high school teachers, regardless of sex, was voted down by a heavy majority in a city election yesterday, tabulation returns completed early today. The vote on the "equal work equal pay" referendum was 23,315, no 15,556.

The result of this referendum was regarded as surprising as there was a heavy women's vote. There had been a strenuous campaign in favor of "equal pay for equal work" in the last two weeks, but the argument that higher salaries for women teachers might stand in the way of increases for other employees is believed to have had its influence with the employees who always constitute a large fraction of the voters in municipal elections.

Bobbing Enjoys Sudden Revival

PARIS—Bobbed hair long has been accepted as standard practice in Paris, but there has developed suddenly a rush to the shears that it is realized now that only a small proportion of the women have had their locks trimmed.

Advocates of short hair have taken advantage of this situation to spread further the doctrine of the bobbed head, and newspapers are carrying interviews and comment that would lead one to suppose the movement is new.

Hairdressers offer no explanation for the thousands coming to them to have their hair cut just in time to catch cold this winter, but they ask no questions and cut.

RAIL EFFICIENCY IS INCREASED

D. T. & I. "Fordizes" Repair and Replacement Equipment

Operating efficiency of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironport railroad is expected to be greatly increased as changes are made in the organization of procedure for repair and replacement of equipment. Engineers who developed the standardization and embodying methods of the Ford Motor Co., are installing a like system for the railroad. This will be in effect within three months.

Shop equipment and repair stocks of the railroad were practically useless when the Ford Co. took over the road, it is said.

Initial move in the standardization plan was to gather data about all equipment. More than 10,000 blue prints of parts were assembled and filed. Application of this system is resulting in a notable standardization of the stock, reducing the necessary inventory. While it is a tremendous task, that great savings made possible soon will pay for the expense involved officials claim. Every formman will be supplied with complete records of the changes as soon as they are in effect.

Replacing of clam shell formerly used for coaling locomotives at the D. T. & I. railroad's yards at Springfield, a direct locomotive coaling machine has been added to the company's equipment. This coaler compacts a feeder and an elevator which automatically deliver and regulate the coal supply and eliminate shoveling and other handling.

The D. T. & I. railroad depots have been treated to a fresh coat of gray and white paint. At Bainbridge the property has been improved with 200 feet of new cement curbing around the platform, and new steps of the same material at doors to the waiting room.

Approximately 500 new box cars have been received at the Ford Highland Park plant and sent on to various assembly branches loaded with car bodies.

STREET REPAIR STARTED BY CITY, BOBENMYER SAYS

Joy is given the residents of S. Main and Fourth-sts. thru the announcement Wednesday morning of C. E. Bobenmyer, street superintendent, that the streets are being re-paved and put in first class condition for winter.

Bobenmyer also announces that the work of repairing E. High-st. between Main and the Baltimore & Ohio railroad tracks will get underway this week.

These repair jobs which he and his crew are doing all over the city are outside of the patch work on asphalt streets for which the city commission Monday night made an allowance of $700.

PRISONER LINKED WITH 24 MURDERS IN ALABAMA

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Backed by a chain of circumstantial evidence which they say tends to connect Fred Glover, negro, with the series of twenty-four ax murders in Birmingham, the police say they expect to obtain direct evidence today sufficient to connect the prisoner with at least some of the slayings. Glover has been identified as the assassin of Mr. A. I. Mrs. Edwin Sparks last Sunday. A bloody short handled hatchet and pistol were found in his room.

Glover recently was released from prison where he served a term for burglary and grand larceny. During his incarceration, no ax attacks were reported.

CHURCH LEADERS IN SESSION

Executive Committee of Council Meets at Columbus

MANY QUESTIONS ARE UP

29 Denominations Are Represented by the Body

COLUMBUS — (United Press) — Sessions of the executive committee of the Federal Council of Churches, most powerful Protestant church body of the world—began here today.

The committee is mouthpiece and executive head of 29 denominations. It represents 50,000,000 church members in the United States.

Special committees and commissions are to report on:

- Mob violence.
- Cooperative evangelism.
- Prohibition.
- The 12-hour day in the steel industry.
- Law enforcement.
- Inter-racial cooperation.
- Rehabilitation of Protestant churches of Europe.
- Preservation of holy places in Palestine.

EVOLUTION QUESTION

Discussion of doctrinal controversies over evolution and fundamentalism were avoided at the opening session today. Leaders said any attempt to present the issues would be crushed back.

Dr. John Moore, of Brooklyn, chairman of the administrative committee, reviewed church developments in 1923.

He compared the council's work to Christ's story of the Good Samaritan.

"The social breakdown on Jericho road reflects the social need of our times," he declared.

"Every international highway is strewn with the victims of the philosophy of force."

He said the council's "mobilization of public opinion against the crime of lynching has resulted in a very decided lowering of that shameful record to a point far below any figure in recent years."

Dr. Moore's review was supplemented by the report of the two general secretaries—Dr. Charles S. McFarland and Dr. Samuel McGraw Carter, of New York.

"Nothing is more ominous than the bitter emphasis on so-called gentile, white, supremacy and the widespread popularity of misleading books like 'The Rising Tide of Color,'" said the report.

"The disposition to despise the gifts of other races and to foster a spirit of race hatred is socially perilous and unchristian."

RADIO AMATEURS OF LIMA INTERESTED IN INTERNATIONAL PLAN

Lima radio amateurs are showing considerable interest in the plan arranged between American, British and French radio amateurs and radio enthusiasts in other countries in a test for international communication.

From December 21 to and including January 11 the radio amateurs will conduct tests for long-distance communication.

As the amateurs of the United States and Canada have already demonstrated their ability to cover distance with their transmitters, they will "stand by" between the hours of 7 p. m. and midnight Central Standard time and listen for French and British amateurs who up to recently have been developing more along the lines of reception.

French and British will transmit on alternate nights, the French beginning December 22 and the British December 23. The last night, January 11, will be free for all when two-way communication will be attempted.

This "stand by" period is not required by the government, and if violated will not be punishable; however, it is a matter of honor to listen for these amateurs across the seas as they have been doing for us. It is also to the advantage of American amateurs as many valuable prizes to the amount of $3,500, have been donated by the leading radio manufacturers, for stations making the best reception records.

RIDES BUMPERS 38 HOURS AND EVADES OFFICIALS OF 3 INTERNATIONAL BORDERS

PARIS — Riding blind baggage behind the tender of a locomotive 38 hours. Aton Hiesky, 17, recently crossed three frontiers without being molested. The Hungarian youth may not have established a distance record for this style of travel, but he is believed to have set a new mark in dodging customs officers, having evaded six crews of them.

Hiesky told the French police he got aboard a train as it was starting from Budapest station. Dressed in overalls and jumper, he alighted at the Austrian, Swiss and French frontiers and mingled with railroad employes in the yards until the train was ready to get under way again. Then he would resume his place behind the tender. In this fashion he rode nearly 1,000 miles into Paris.

He returned to the Swiss frontier in style, having an entire second-class compartment to himself, while two French policemen took the greatest care looking after him.

GREAT BUILDING ERA AT HAND

New Records in Construction for 1924 Forecast

ACTIVITIES NOW UNDER WAY

Situation Reviewed by Head of Real Estate Boards

(BY MARK H. KNIGHT)

DENVER, Colo. — (United Press) — "The greatest building year this country has ever had, is now rounding up to a close. Construction activities now under way and uncompleted, together with contracts let, assure an even greater expansion of home and business construction for 1924."

L. F. Eppich, president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, declared today.

"Contemplated construction is greater than at this time in 1923. An unprecedented wave of construction on suburban lands got under way this fall and promises to continue thru much of 1924," he continued.

Eppich said building and business in general appears to have returned near to an equilibrium.

"Construction bonuses have vanished," he said. "More apprentices are in the trades than for several years and they are now being encouraged by craft unions. Whereas labor costs remain stationary, efficiency has increased making for slightly decreased production costs."

MANY AMENDMENTS BEFORE THE LOWER HOUSE OF CONGRESS

WA-INGTON. — Representative Anthony, Republican Kansas, announced today he expected to introduce in the house the "equal rights" amendment to the constitution placed before the senate Monday by Senator Curtis of his state. The measure is sponsored by the National Woman's party.

Numerous proposed amendments to the constitution already are before the house. They are: Calling for restriction of child labor; child labor states not to be considered citizens; the right of congress to enact uniform marriage and divorce laws; to have the inauguration of the president advanced to the third Monday in January and to have the date set at January 24; sale and manufacture of beer containing no more than five per cent of alcohol; and the levying of taxes upon it with which to pay adjusted compensation for world war veterans; to prohibit the issue of tax exempt securities; election of the president and vice-president on popular vote; the nominee receiving the largest vote of all cast throughout the nation to be declared president; to give congress power to regulate the nomination and election of United States senators and representatives and to regulate the expenditures of candidates for nomination to these offices.

Other county figures on drainage plans include Ashland, $60,000; Wayne, $100,000; Lorain, $10,465; Seneca, $5,335; Portage, $48,000; Tru, $10,000; Wayne, $6,000; Seneca, $22,750. Coming additions to county drainage districts will mean a large increase in the amount of land thru the state that has already benefited from local drainage. Three years ago the area under drainage was 8,147,546 acres, or 31.3 per cent of the total land area of the state, and the cost of improvements planned at that time was to be $31,105,250. Much of this work has been since deferred, however, the department reports.

Payments May Reach $100,000 by Wednesday Night, Claim

Collections Monday ran in excess of $35,000, and more than $30,000 was paid in Tuesday. Collections for Wednesday will bring the total for three days up to $100,000 if the $35,000 mark is reached.

Bolkin repeated his warning that payment must be made, as far as he is concerned, on or before December 20. After that date the 15 per cent excess penalty will be applied.

Former Policeman Tells of Actions of Dr. John J. Murphy

PROTECTION WAS DEMANDED

Testimony of Attorney is Withheld from Jury by Judge

"Dr. Murphy said she was his daughter. I told him to get away from her as I believed she would be all right."

WANTED PROTECTION

"He got on walking up and down and raving, and said, 'I want protection, and mean to have it.'"

A cab was called and the party went to the police station where the case was investigated by Captain Grant.

Mrs. Emma Laws, colored beauty specialist, told of washing some curtains for Dr. Murphy. He refused to pay for them, and grew quite excited. After about a month he paid for the curtains the witness said.

Testimony of Charles L. Fess, attorney, brother of U. S. Senator Simon Fess, regarding actions of Dr. Murphy was not allowed to go to the jury as the court held it to be in the nature of a confidential communication between attorney and client.

ATTORNEY TESTIFIES

Counsel for Mrs. Mary Murphy Edmonds, plaintiff, sought to have Fess describe Murphy's actions. He stated that he thought Dr. Murphy was insane, but admitted that the opinion was partly based on conduct and partly on the professional communications, which were excluded from evidence.

Mrs. Margaret Murphy, divorced wife of the decedent, concluded her testimony late Tuesday.

She was on the stand almost continuously while court was in session Monday and Tuesday. Her testimony was similar to that given by her at the former trial, but differed in some particulars, which were vividly attacked by the defense.

Ten of the 43 witnesses called by the plaintiff have testified. Several of them may be called for rebuttal.

MEXICAN REBELS SPEED UP VICTORY DRIVE

CAPTURED TOWNS MARK TRAIL

Whole West Coast Menaced by Spread of Revolution

OBREGON LEADER PURSUED

Gen. Garcia's Army Disperses Loyalists, is Claim

EL PASO, Texas — (Associated Press.)—Intense fighting along the Mexican border incident to the uprising against the government of President Alvaro Obregon centers about news from Nogales, Ariz., that more than 2,000 armed insurgents are marching from Tepic, west coast town, now in the hands of the rebels, to take the states of Sinaloa and Sonora. A general conflagration over the Mexican west coast is feared in view of the insurgents' rapid advance.

The international line runs between Sonora and New Mexico and for a short distance, Sonora also meets Arizona.

Moving with great rapidity under the leadership of General M. M. Dieguez, Mariano Gaxiola and Rafael Buelna, the invaders are taking control of all towns in the line of march.

Gen. Dieguez is reported to have declared his forces would remain in the field until Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles has been removed irrevocably from the possible field of Mexican presidential candidates.

TROOPS JOIN REBELS

VERA CRUZ—(Associated Press.)—Revolutionary headquarters here announces that rebel forces under command of Gen. Silvano Garcia have defeated and dispersed the loyal troops which were defending Coahuila, a town on the border of the states of Vera Cruz and Puebla. Jose Maria Sanchez, former governor of Puebla, who was at the head of the Obregon forces, is being pursued by the rebels.

The statement also asserts that the government of the state of Colima has been overthrown, while all troops in Sonora and Sinaloa have joined the revolutionary movement.

"The troops of Gen. Estrada," continues the statement, "have begun their advance toward La Piedad, Michoacan, where it is expected the first major combat with the Obregon forces will take place."

"Coast towns in Michoacan have recognized the revolutionary movement. Several squadrons belonging to the 55th federal regiment, which were in garrison at Coahuila, have joined the revolt, as have the forces in Aguillilla."

Lieut. Col. Daniel Castillo has taken charge of the government of Colima, the communique asserts. Persons reaching Esperanza, Puebla, from Mexico City, brought word of President Obregon's departure from the capital at ten o'clock yesterday morning, ostensibly to review troops at Queretaro, but it is believed here that the president will not return.

Carols For All, Aim Of Request By Xmas Mother

All organizations in the city which will sing carols this Christmas are asked to get in touch with the Christmas mother in order that schedules may be worked out.

It is the desire of the Christmas mother to have every section of the city covered this year and have all the shuttles enjoy the Christmas songs. In other years some of those confined to their homes were missed. By working out a schedule it will be possible to reach every shuttin and every section of the city and avoid duplication. The songs will be sung on Christmas Eve.

Special plans are being worked out for the participation in the singing by children. Certain sections of the city are being reserved for them, Mrs. Beecher Moke, Christmas mother, announced Wednesday.

She is requesting that all those who know of shuttles, or needy families or who are willing to help in some way call her at the Christmas mother office, Main 7922.

LAST WORK DONE ON X-RAY INSTALLATION

Finishing touches on the X-ray being installed at the district tuberculosis hospital by the women's board of managers were to be made Wednesday.

The $3,500 machine will revolutionize treatments at the hospital and will greatly aid in the cure of the disease, Dr. J. D. Pace, superintendent, asserts.

Funds to be used in the payment of the machine received a boost Wednesday when women of Celina sent a check of $200 to the local organization.

A bazaar to be held at 14 Public Square Friday and Saturday is to further aid in paying for the machine. It is being held under the supervision of the women's board.

Because of the activities of the women this fall, Dr. Pace has agreed to provide the Christmas tree and celebration this year. Every feature seen in other years will be provided, he says.

GIRL CONFESSES FORGERY

Admits Cashing Bogus Check, Caught Trying Second

Edith Bobson, 18, colored, of 1518 W. Elm-st, Wednesday pleaded guilty in criminal court before Judge Neil R. Poling to two counts of forgery. She was bound over to the grand jury under $200 bail.

Check of $7.50 was on the Moyer-Frail grocery, 1302 W. High-st, and a second check for $15 at the Deisel store, public square, formed charges in the affidavits.

Three more checks are said to have been passed on local merchants by the girl, who was accompanied by a 13 year old companion, released by police, is the information obtained at headquarters after an alleged confession by the Bobson girl.

The check passed at the grocery bore the name of H. M. Kemmer and was payable to Blanche Scott, being drawn on the Lima Trust Co.

Shortly after the departure of the two girls from the grocery police were called and arrested them at the Deisel store where the $15 forged check with the name of Mrs. Harry Wright was presented.

THEY DREAM IN MILLIONS

As Army Rushes One Project Eyes Turn to Future

(By ROY J. GIBBONS)

FLORENCE, Ala. — (Special) — They think in terms of millions down here. And little wonder. For within a jiffy ride of this thriving metropolis, Muscle Shoals, the Tennessee river into foamy rapids of miniature cataracts, echoes up from the blue haze of the valley and the misty shrouds of industrial hatter-skeller one hears of the thundering of the last link in the foundation of Wilson dam is pounded, poured and hammered into place.

It is behind this rising barrier that the vagrant river waters now tumbling past in prodigal waste soon will be chained and transfigured to willing electrical servants for a multitude of useful tasks. Down where the mist looms thick, an army of 4,600 workers, surviving day and night to feed the rearing giant its steel and concrete that the wall may stand complete before flood time just a few weeks off.

All of this activity is being carried on by the government at a total cost of $50,000,000. The folks of Florence and her tri-city sisters, Sheffield and Tusculum, look upon it as their own particular heritage and pride.

In terms of Muscle Shoals and nothing else, the entire combined populations of 25,000 eats, sleeps, talks, dreams and thinks.

THEY'RE ALL IN IT

Scarcely a citizen, bankers say, is to be found, who has not invested something in the land boom expected to follow completion of the monster dam and subsequent starting of production at the mammoth nitrate plant dependent upon the dam for cheap power.

Quite naturally in thinking and talking about Muscle Shoals, Florence and her surrounding equally interested municipal neighbors, give fair share of speculation to Henry Ford's proposal of purchase of the entire properties.

But folks here—the majority of them—have waited so long for action that right now, few care much whether Ford "gets it" or the "government runs it."

They have dreamed and talked so long in anticipation of six-figure bank accounts. Shoals and land are synonymous to the population here. A brief walk down the streets of Florence or any of the surrounding municipalities confirms this.

Reality offices flank the thoroughfares. Subdivisions dot the countryside. Land is all the visitor hears and can talk with mutual interest.

Up and down the river, above and below the dam, now with 60 per cent of the necessary 1,291,365 cubic yards of concrete poured in place, enough property has been plotted for future subdivision development to accommodate several road-sized cities.

MONEY TIED UP

Money tied up in such speculative enterprise is the growing cause of much unrest. Likewise it is responsible for an increasing sentiment among factions of the population to wonder at the sincerity of Ford's intention to purchase Muscle Shoals.

These folks waited long. And they wait their dream of millions fulfilled.

Probably it is their intense interest in the shoals which makes them wonder at Ford's insistence that a duplicate of the Gorgas steam plant, 10 miles away on the Warrior River and recently sold to the Alabama Power Co., be built before he considers negotiations.

At the nitrate plants from which he expected cheap fertilizers are to come, another vigil of waiting is being kept. Some 60 men attend the hundreds of acres of property, painting and cleaning the machinery is their principal task.

Likewise they keep guard of the vast surplus stores originally purchased to construct a village of one 1,200 homes on the plant sites.

100 BATH TUBS

Only a part of the village was ever built. Still on the grounds today lay some 300 bath tubs—scarcely fit for bathing now—and an endless quantity of tile, lumber, brick and plumbing.

The machinery in the two plants is in fairly good condition—that is, as far as it can be seen.

Some day the government hopes to get a peek at the mechanical entity, however—this when it can appropriate $20,000 to purchase current from the Alabama Power Co. to which Uncle Sam leased the nitrate steam plant power house.

This sum, it is anticipated, will obtain sufficient power to revolve the giant wheels for a single hour's rust inspection. But the $20,000 first must be procured.

To operate the two nitrate plants, the dam with its huge powerhouse containing 18 generating units of 624,000 horsepower capacity is being built.

The entire project when completed—nitrate plants, dam and subsidiary units—will have cost the American public in excess of $160,000,000.

And for the day when operations are begun and the anticipated influx of population starts rolling in—to buy the land—Florence and her sister cities wait and hope and dream—in terms of millions.

Could Not Sleep Because of Her Husband's Coughing

A stubborn cough is a danger signal. It is a warning to you to look after your own health at once: It is a warning to others not to get too close to you. Often a cough follows a cold or a run-down physical condition, and frequently it refuses to yield to ordinary treatment.

In many such cases Eckman's Alternative, the calcium tonic, has brought about wonderful relief. Mrs. Kroenland, R. F. D. 4, Box 160, Tacoma, Wash., tells of the benefits her husband, a soldier in the Second Canadian Engineers, who was gassed in France and wounded three times, received from this remedy: "My husband's lungs and chest were so sore he could not bear a touch. I could get no sleep from his coughing. Finally I was told of your wonderful remedy, and after three doses my husband felt just splendid, his breathing was just as mild as ever. Now he is taking his third bottle. He goes to work every day and feels as good as he ever did."

Get a bottle from your druggist today, and ask him for your booklet, or let us send you a copy.

COOLIDGE'S IDEAS HIT BY M'ADOO
Cal President's Message Council of Dormancy
LIKENED TO 7 YEAR ITCH
BONUS Opposition Declared Dismissal of Just Claims

LOS ANGELES — (Associated Press) — President Coolidge's message to congress was called "a counsel of dormancy" and his opposition to a bonus for ex-service men characterized as a summary dismissal of "just claims for consideration."

The former director general of railroads derided the president's proposal for a voluntary consolidation of these systems of transportation as a "seven year itch for reduced freight and passenger rates without any assurance of relief at the end of the trial, telling his hearers that "what is needed is not seven years of delay, but action."

"The president's message," said McAdoo in part, "is largely a counsel of dormancy. Nowhere is there the stimulating call of progress. The world is in commotion and vital domestic problems press upon us for solution but no effective program is offered for the alleviation or correction of domestic ills, nor is encouragement given for invigorating international policies which will reopen world markets for our surplus products, tend to promote economic stability or encourage peace and tranquility between nations."

TAX REDUCTION
"The most affirmative part of the president's message is the recommendation of tax reduction. The whole country favors tax reduction. The Democratic party has stood consistently for it since the signing of the armistice and should cooperate without regard to partisan considerations in any effort to ease the tax burden. The effort should be directed not alone to a reduction in the gross sum of taxation but to an equitable distribution of the burden."

The proposal to put a lighter tax on earned incomes, namely those gained by the sweat of the brow and the toll of the brain, than upon unearned incomes, namely those which come from investments, is commendable.

"This proposition was first made by the Democratic secretary of the treasury in 1918 and was offered in 1921 as an amendment to the revenue bill by Senator Harris of Georgia. It was defeated by a vote of 36 Republicans to 21 Democrats on the ground, as stated by Senator Penrose, then chairman of the finance committee of the senate, that:

"The question of earned and unearned incomes was most exhaustively considered by the committee by the senate and by the treasury department and the opinion was nearly unanimous that any such provision is impossible of administration."

"What has produced this extraordinary reversal of opinion on the part of the treasury department and the administration? If this provision was nearly impossible of administration in 1921 why is it possible of administration in 1923."

The president opposes any increase in the pay of the soldiers who fought the war to victory. Although a great education in the tax burden can be made and the reasonable compensation proposed for the soldiers and sailors can be provided at the same time the president is determined that justice shall not be done to the war veterans. Their just claims for consideration are summarily dismissed, but the president is strong for the maintenance of the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill, which gives favored trusts, monopolies and combinations in restraint of trade a subsidy estimated at more than three billions of dollars per annum, or twice as much as it will take to pay the soldiers' bonus in cash. For privilege everything, for the defense of the country nothing.

"The president declares that no more important duty rests on the government than the adequate care of sick and disabled veterans and that there is no word of reprehension or the gratifiers who have degraded the veterans' bureau and who have stolen or misappropriated funds which were set aside to take care of the men and women who suffered the loss of health and became permanently injured in the service of their nation."

The president offers no constructive thought on the "road problem, perhaps the most important domestic problem confronting the nation. He generalizes vaguely about the value of legislation and suggests that the "roads be given authority to voluntarily consolidate."

Mr. McAdoo declared the consolidation proposal of President Coolidge gives little promise of relief for the farmers particularly and for the people of the country as a whole. "The present excessive cost of road transportation,"

DECISION NOT REACHED IN PROBE OF WRECK
ERIE, Pa. — No decision fixing the responsibility for the collision between the two sections of the Twentieth Century Limited at Forsyth, N. Y., near here early Sunday morning in which nine persons were killed, was reached during the New York Central railroad's investigation held here yesterday.

A statement issued by railroad officials at the close of the inquiry announced that responsibility would be fixed jointly by the railroad, the Interstate commerce commission and the New York state public service commission after the evidence is reduced. Testimony developed that Engineer Charles Patterson of Buffalo, pilot of the third section of the train "failed to comply with the signals which indicated that there was danger behind the second section," the statement said.

U.S. AGENTS HUNT COUNTERFEITERS
$1,000,000 of Bad Money in Circulation at Chicago
FIVE MEN UNDER ARREST
Making of the Bills Declared Work of Experts

CHICAGO. — (Associated Press.) — Counterfeit money estimated at between $500,000 and $1,000,000 is being circulated in Chicago, according to reports to Captain Thomas I. Porter, chief of the government secret service here. The spurious bills are being reported at the rate of several hundred daily and additional investigators have been brought here to assist in tracing the source.

BILLS DESCRIBED
All the bills have been of the $10 denomination of the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank, series 7-G, bearing a picture of Andrew Jackson. The reverse side is either a lighter or darker shade of green than the genuine but the work of the counterfeiters has been expert and the difference is difficult to note, according to the government agents. Under the seal on the face of the notes are the numbers 2-333. Altho two arrests have been

FOR THE COUGH THAT STICKS
Common Cough Syrups Won't Help—You've Got To Make Your Own
Cheap and Best

For any kind of a cough, but especially for the stubborn one that persists and keeps you awake at night this home made cough mixture will quickly loosen the phlegm, allay the inflammation and stop the cough.

You can make it yourself at home in two minutes by following these instructions:

Get from any druggist one ounce of Parmit (double strength)—to this add a little granulated sugar and enough water to make one half pint—that's all there is to it, and children like it.

Like a soothing, healing poultice one costly substance in this home made mixture spreads itself completely over the membrane of the throat. This causes the most stubborn hang-on cough to cease almost instantly. No ordinary slow-acting cough syrup contains this expensive ingredient.

It's a mighty fine remedy for chest colds and acute nasal catarrh, and remember that any remedy that overcomes catarrh, partially or wholly, is bound to be of benefit to those who are troubled with head noises and catarrhal deafness. Get Parmit and get better.—Adv.

ONE ROBE IN TUT'S TOMB DECORATED WITH 50,000 BEADS
NEW YORK — It will require years to restore accurately for later archaeological study and public observation the relics found in the tomb of King Tutankhamun in the Egyptian valley of the kings, says the Current Bulletin of the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

The fragile condition of the aged cloths and vestments made impossible their repair or even handling. Three weeks was required to unpack one small box to enable experts to note the general appearance of its objects and the schemes of decoration so that copies could be made and the original gold and jeweled decorations placed with accuracy.

Wooden parts of chariots buried with the king were in good condition but the leather harness had been reduced to powder. One robe was decorated with 50,000 beads which must be sewed one by one to a copy. Replicas of ancient sandals must be made and covered with gold-trappings.

BANDITS ATTEMPT HOLDUP OF CLEVELAND POLICEMAN
CLEVELAND — Police today are watching hospitals and checking physicians' offices for trace of a bandit believed to have been wounded when he and a companion tried to hold up Patrolman Earl Meekes, who was walking home from a picture show last night. The bandits held a revolver against the policeman and ordered him to hand over his money.

"All right," Meekes, answered. "Here's my pocketbook." As he spoke he reached for his hip pocket, ostensibly for his pocketbook, but drew his revolver and twisting aside, fired simultaneously with one of the robbers. After an exchange of half a dozen shots the robbers fled. Meekes believes he hit one, because once the pair fell, but both escaped.

Can't Stop Joint-Ease
"You can't stop people from buying Joint-Ease for sore throat and cold in chest," writes one of our druggist friends. "They say it's the best ever."

We know that, of course, but please remember that Joint-Ease is for stiff, swollen, painful joints, whether rheumatic or not, and its tremendous sale for that purpose proves that it is the one joint remedy that gets the most satisfying results.

Tube costs 60 cents at Green's Public Drug Store, Hunter's Drug Stores, Argonne Drug Store and druggists everywhere. Just rub it on and in a few seconds it disappears completely under the skin, and relief follows instantly. —Adv.

A THANKLESS, HEARTBREAKING JOB

CLEVELAND has just named its first city manager. He will assume his duties about January 7. He has our sympathy. William R. Hopkins will serve as the fifth city's first manager. He is described as a successful lawyer, engineer, realtor and railroad builder. He will receive a salary of about $25,000 a year, it is reported.

Mr. Hopkins' experience will stand him in good stead in the work he will undertake. He will find that all the diplomacy he has learned as a lawyer will not be sufficient. He will find that his engineering ability will not be generally respected and his training in other lines will likewise go for naught in the estimation of many people.

We are basing our predictions on the reception of other "first" city managers. Almost without exception, it is the same. It is a heartbreaking job, a thankless task where the jibes of critics are enough to wear down the average man.

We hope history will not repeat in the case of Cleveland. It is the largest city yet to undertake the reform in city government. We fear it will be the same, however. We hope the first city manager there is so constituted that he can stand the razz that will follow. He will need a great deal of patience, diplomacy and hard-headed business sense. If he doesn't believe us, he can ask our General Byng.

WRITING YOUR OWN RECEIPT

HOW many of your Christmas purchases did you pay for by check? How many by cash? Of the ones you paid cash for, how many receipts have you?

There is no inference here that there is any dishonest persons in Lima. We are simply calling your attention again to a matter many overlook constantly, the fallibility of humankind—the chance for mistake.

When you write a check for any bill, you are also writing a receipt for yourself that cannot be disputed and is always available. And the beauty of the system is that it doesn't cost you a cent.

It is a simple matter to open a checking account at any of the fine banks in Lima. All are good. With the strict inspection they must stand, no matter what kind of charter they may have, one does not take a chance in placing his business in their hands. And they are always ready to welcome new faces.

Money in a bank can't burn up or be stolen from you. It is as accessible to you at all times as if it were in the "old sock" at home—more accessible for a pilferer can't walk away with it there.

And there is another argument in favor of the check. A check written on a bank such as any of those Lima boasts, builds up confidence for you with those with whom you deal. It is a mark of character to have a bank account. That wily old Scot, Harry Lauder says, "Show me your bank book and I will tell you what you are."

This is not an ad for the banking business here or elsewhere. It is an argument for safety for those who earn and spend money. It is as important that this kind of safety be urged as it is to preach the "Stop, Look and Listen" slogan.

RILEY LOVED CHILDREN

CONAN DOYLE stirs up a hornet's nest in Indiana by saying that James Whitcomb Riley, the greatest poet of childhood in his generation, cared nothing for children—in fact, was bored by them. Some psychologists claim that writers do their best work on subjects they're not in sympathy with, just as many a drunk has given fine "dry" lectures.

Riley, however, adored children—so much so that he often affected a dislike for them, to conceal a sentiment so keenly developed in him that he was almost ashamed of it. Many a man has tears in his eyes while he's blustering his disdain for something emotional.

RADIO IS IMPROVING

RADIO waves travel in all directions, like ripples from a stone thrown in a pond. Marconi announces a new device that sends radio waves in any desired direction, under perfect control, like a searchlight. This brings us a long step nearer the day when radio can be the universal means of communication, probably every one carrying a receiving and even sending, set the size of a watch.

After my ham sandwich, and beaker of Kommish, out to fall in with Manager Clark, of The Faurot who tells me Able is going to bring his Irish Rose back here in January.

In the afternoon, came Jimmie Heffner, the Lincoln Highway fan; and Sam Weinfield, who has resigned his job as Santa's chef. Thence out and to my tailor's to try on a baby suit, or wescutt, as some do say. Having done this business dropped in for a private chat with Gene Christen, the bank-er. GOOD AND BAD CARRIERS

Since the exploits of Typhoid Mary was heralded 10 or 12 years ago, and numerous stories of other epidemics traced to apparently healthy germ carriers since Mary's time, the public has come to understand pretty well what germ carriers are. But germ carriers contribute considerably toward the steady decrease in the prevalence of infectious diseases.

Dr. William H. Park, director of the laboratories of the New York city health department, one of the foremost authorities on bacteriology and epidemiology, who has contributed perhaps more than any other individual to our present knowledge of the prevention and treatment of diphtheria recognizes four distinct forms of virulence.

First, the virulence which is indicated by the power of certain germs to produce toxins or poisons if the germs are able to fasten on the tissues and multiply therein, as in diphtheria and tetanus. Second, the virulence which allows a microbe to grow on the surface of the mucous membranes, making the host a carrier of such germs as the pneumococcus and the diphtheria bacillus. Third, the virulence which allows growth in the tissues as in ordinary infection when an opening is accidentally or surgically made into the body tissues. Fourth, the virulence which permits the invasion of the body thru intact mucous membranes as presumably happens in some severe epidemics.

Some strains of diphtheria germs have virulence of the first kind for many of us, but when they lodge in the nose or throat of certain individuals they succeed in getting into a toe hold, so to speak, growing and multiplying on the surface, not producing toxins nor causing disease. Such individuals become carriers; the germs they carry are capable of surviving and multiplying if they get into other throats and noses, producing an unbroken chain of carriers perhaps.

But curiously enough, the case to carrier carrier is more dangerous than the carrier to carrier carrier because the germs which have recently been in training and an actual battle will retain some of their virulence and can bring it into action if they find the conditions favorable. This has long been suspected by physicians.

The third person as much more likely to carry diphtheria than is the ordinary casual carrier of diphtheria germs. Dr. Park remarks that in the city at any one time at least 1 per cent of the people are carrier to carrier carriers of diphtheria germs. He even finds a hopeful side to the germ carrier matter, because undoubtedly to some degree at least, these carrier microbes, while still capable of producing toxins, have lost much of the virulence but are still able to immunize.

Dr. Park believes that when we ride in overcrowded cars we doubtless breathe in germs from the respiratory tracts of our neighbors, (germs suspended in the invisibly fine spray of moisture given off when one talks,) yet only a few of us develop a certain amount of immunity against the respiratory infections. All of this happens, however, only when and if we do our utmost to keep our general health in the best possible condition. That means living the hygienic life—a kind of life, alas, which so many of us desire to live only when we fear it is growing short.

JUST FOLKS

BY EDGAR A. GUNS

APPROACHING CHRISTMAS Last night at eight o'clock he said, "I think it's time to go to bed." And putting down his book, he went without the fuss of being sent. And then I smiled and understood That he had started being good.

He placed his garments on a chair. His knickers neatly folded there. His shoes and stockings smiled at us. As if to say: "The morning fuss of dressing will no longer be; He's started being orderly."

I chuckled as I turned my head To watch him sleeping in his bed. A wondrous change had taken place. Our boy had washed his hands and face!

Boys very seldom think, I said, To wash before they go to bed.

We have a model boy today. Cynics may call this youthful gullie. But I behold it with a smile. For once, just like that rough old elf, I played at being good myself.

Suppose there were no Christmas day. No gifts for which to dream and pray. No sweet rewards for conduct fair. Our lives would then be bleak and bare. We should grow old and never see. How very good our boys can be.

THIS LITTLE WORLD

NEW YORK

(BY CASUAL WRITERS) NEW YORK (Special).—Down on the lower end of Manhattan Island a skyscraper is rising. In its outer appearance it is no different from the scores of others that raise their giant heads to the sky. But this one is different. It is an artificial human being, product of the mind of man. Its thousands of arms, far outflung, reach from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

There its giant skeleton of steel, encased in flesh of brick and stone, runs the network of wire, carrying their messages of joy and sorrow, of pain and well-being, of death and life. For this skyscraper is the new home of the New York Telephone Company, now under course of construction.

Beneath its roof will be housed more telephone equipment than is found in many European countries. enough to serve as many telephones as there are in a city the size of Cincinnati.

Upon seven of its seven-story floors will be bank upon bank, and row upon row of the new machine-switching apparatus, which will serve 120,000 telephones. To handle all these phones in the completion of calls from manual stations, only 400 operators will be required.

In the cable vaults of the four-story basement will be a total of 422 lead-covered telephone cables, containing 122,000 separate and individual telephone wires, grouped in sheaths no larger than a man's wrist. From this meeting place the wires fan out as trunk lines to every city and nation.

In the basement also will be a storage battery and charging plant capable of furnishing enough electric current to light the homes of a large town. The batteries weigh almost 600 tons and contain enough current to light 12,000 25-watt lamps for eight hours. Thirty-five motor generators will keep the batteries charged. These generators have a 2,000-horsepower capacity.

Above the first seven floors will be the business and administrative offices where 7000 people will spend their working hours.

Altogether the building will be 28 stories, 484 feet high. It will rise straight for 17 stories, and then, in accordance with the zoning laws, the remaining 12 floors will be in a setback.

A total of 600,000 square feet of working space will be provided, which the machine-switching equipment will require about 250,000 feet. A long way, indeed, has the telephone traveled from the day when 15 boys ran the lone switchboard of New York.

Sure Way To Get Rid Of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely, and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffly, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and tell a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Adv.

(By CAME)

I SAT as one in a dream Tuesday night in the Faurot theatre: I was one of an audience that packed that famous playhouse; I was oblivious to all surroundings with mind wandering among the immortals. The thought uppermost was that reward for absolute genius, comes not to the individual but to his memory. I dreamed that less than a century ago, there walked the streets of Vienna Franz Schubert, from whose brain emanated music that will go down with posterity to the end of time. And I saw him poverty stricken, but always his genius counted with him for more than earthly riches; who was contented suffering earthly things; wanting the necessities that keep body and soul together, because he was happy with his genius; I saw this immortal in reality, as I gazed at Joseph Mendelssohn, a wonderfully good actor; a consummate artist and a splendid performer, even the very agony of truth was being repeated.

And then I intuitively thank Dorothy Donnelly for making possible this superb production of “Blossom Time.” It bore me back to spring, the time Schubert loved best of all. “Why present to the society your unfinished Symphony,” asks one of the characters of the play. “Because,” says Schubert, “it is my best composition.” “Why not finish it?” was a second interrogation. “Because my genius; my inspiration has left me,” was the answer.

The theme was taken from Schubert’s unfinished symphony, but this is enhanced thru the orchestra obligato in such scenes as the renunciation with his Ava Marie; as the more convincing than the Daisy scene employing the second movement of the composer’s Unfinished Symphony, and the finale of the second act, which is his impatience, with the lyrics changed to longing; and extracts from his Serenade, almost literally, with violin obligato, and then “Peace of a Lonely Heart,” from his Ava Marie, arranged for soprano with baritone obligato.

But the unselfish heart; the gentle spirit of Schubert dominates the beautiful production. “It is one that all of us will long remember. It stands as a dramatic and musical gem far above any other that has perhaps ever been seen on the local stage. It is an event in stage history we may never have the opportunity of seeing again.”

BUREAU COMBINE

Board of Commerce Committee to Report on Traffic Service

Decision as to whether the board of commerce shall take over the traffic bureau, now operated by a private concern and place the service at the disposal of all members of the board will likely be reached at a meeting of the executive committee of the board Thursday noon at the Bar hotel, according to information obtainable at the board.

Fears are expressed that the special traffic committee which has the proposition in charge is going to make an adverse report, although it has actually come from committee members, it was said Wednesday.

It would probably require an annual appropriation of $5,000 to operate the traffic bureau for the benefit of the members of the board, according to figures given out there Wednesday. It is understood that many active members of the board are adverse to making an appropriation of that sum every year to maintain the traffic bureau. It is now maintained by a private concern, under the direction of the board of commerce and those business houses which want the services of the bureau pay extra for it.

Taking over of the traffic bureau and expanding it to include the industrial work so that the bureau would handle both traffic and industrial problems was one of the things discussed at the joint meeting of the directors, executive and finance committees held November 27.

Christmas carols will be sung by the club members with Miss Marietta Day playing the violin and Miss Rosemary C. Christen at the piano.

BEER HALLS TURNED INTO FEEDING KITCHENS

BERLIN—Some of Berlin’s old time beer halls as well as some of the city’s jazz restaurants are to be taken over by the authorities as feeding kitchens for the poor. A limited number of dance halls are to continue, but all who dance must pay a tax of one gold mark or so for an evening’s entertainment. The funds raised by the tax are to be applied to charity. From the money thus derived, it is estimated, food may be provided for some 35,000 persons.

He thought he was going to die and the doctors didn't seem to help him any. Like a drowning man grasping for a straw he tried May's Wonderful Remedy, which a nurse told us about, and now he is entirely well and eats anything." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. FONDANT
Two cups granulated sugar, ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar, ½ cup water. Mix sugar and cream of tartar; add water. Stir until well mixed. Put over slow fire and bring to boiling point. Have pan of water close to pan of sirup. Cover fingers with cloth and dip into cold water. Swab few crystals, dip into cold water. Continue this until sides are clear. Thereafter cover and boil slowly, wiping down crystals as they form. Boil until a few drops tried in a saucer of cold water form soft ball when picked up with fingers. Ball must be firm enough to hold, but soft and pliable.

Remove instantly from fire and place pan in larger one of cold water. Let stand until cool. Beat with wooden spoon until creamy. When too stiff to beat turn onto a large platter and knead until soft.

Put in oiled bowl and let stand covered in cold place at least three hours. BUTTER CREAMS

How to Guard Against Infection

When wounds occur their ultimate effect is often directly dependent upon the attention and treatment they receive at the time of occurrence.

The Army appreciates the necessity of applying first aid instantaneously—when needed—and every soldier is furnished with a first aid "kit."

In some large plants the foremen carry vials of iodine, hermetically sealed. When an accident occurs, the tip of the vial is pinched off and the iodine is applied as it flows through a cotton cover, which acts as a brush.

In every home, shop and office some good disinfectant should always be kept handy, that cuts and scratches can be quickly treated.

Of course, where they are at all serious, the physician should be called at once.

NATIONAL LEAGUE GIVES LOYAL SUPPORT TO LANDIS

Industrial Basketeers Come Strong As Teams Get Into Race. L. E. & W Leads

Johnny Evers Gets Back In Game As Assistant To Chance. Mays Goes To Reds

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — The National and American baseball leagues meet here Wednesday for their joint session with Commissioner K. M. Landis serenely confident that their session will be amiable, with none of the clashes at first predicted.

Assurance that the spirit of peace prevailed among the major leagues was given when the club owners of the National League adopted resolutions extending to Commissioner Landis "the continuance of our hearty and loyal support, and our appreciation for his distinguished services as well as unqualified approval of his official action."

While joint action was not taken by the American League clubs, fear that the commissioner would be embarrassed at Wednesday's session was dispelled as soon as the National League stand became known. Rumors had been afloat that President Heydler of the National League and President Ban Johnson, of the American League might express dissatisfaction for failure to consult them in arranging the 1933 world series.

Seventeen proposed amendments to baseball rules are to be acted upon by the joint session of the two major leagues Wednesday.

A few deals were consummated during the sessions of major and minor leagues late Tuesday, with the signing of Johnny Evers as coach of the Chicago Americans for next season and the sale of Carl Vessels, right hand pitcher, for the New York Americans to the Cincinnati Nationals, the most important, the price for Vessels was said to be more than $10,000.

EVERS GETS BACK
Baseball officials learned of the return of Evers as assistant to Frank Chance for the White Sox as a surprise. It was believed that he had retired from the game. Big Ed Walsh, who assisted Manager Gleason as coach last year, will be retained, Chance said.

Purchase by the Philadelphia Athletics of Paul Strand of the Salt Lake City club, who has been a hitting sensation in the Pacific Coast league, was announced by Manager Connie Mack.

Club owners of the International League voted in opposition to restoration of the league to its former status. The American Association today takes up the task of drafting a schedule.

Harry Grabner, secretary of the Chicago White Sox, and Clark Griffith, president of the Washington club, were in conference several times Tuesday but refused to say whether their seasons were over. Eddie Collins, White Sox second baseman.

Sam Breadon, president of the St. Louis Cardinals, declared that no amount of money would buy Hornsby, star infielder, after receiving an offer of $275,000 from the Brooklyn club.

MEETING SWING INTO FINAL HOURS

(By JAMES T. KOLBERT)
CHICAGO — (United Press) — With the Pacific Coast League presidency squabble out of the way, the annual meeting of the big and little moguls of baseball swung into its final and major phase Wednesday.

As the American and National Leagues went into joint session, it took a long time to get the commissioner of baseball, who had been in the comfort of

HORNSBY WILL JUMP ORGANIZED BALL RATHER THAN PLAY AGAIN WITH ST. LOUIS

(By Henry L. Farrell)
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK — Rogers Hornsby, champion batsman of the National League, will jump organized baseball if he is not traded before the opening of the next season by the St. Louis Cardinals, it was learned from reliable authority.

Hornsby, according to a well-known sportsman who talked to him in St. Louis last week, has received an offer of $15,000 a season to play with a semi-pro team in Chicago and he will accept if the St. Louis club attempts to make him play with the Cards.

Hornsby, according to the informant, feels that he has been treated shabbily by the club. He doesn't like St. Louis or the team and he wants to play elsewhere.

He said during the conversation that he would like to play in Chicago or in New York and he expressed a desire to "play for Bill Killifer."

He would also like to live in Chicago.

Hornsby claimed that his relations with the St. Louis club were such that he positively would never play another game in a Cardinal uniform.

Hornsby was suspended and fined heavily for refusing to play in a game last fall and he maintains that he was not in physical condition to play.

He said he did not care about the fine and he would make no attempt to get the money back, although he figures that it was unfair in the club to hold out any part of his salary.

"The club needs money worse than I do and I wouldn't argue with them about a few dollars," he was reported to have said.

When the St. Louis club turned down an offer of $275,000 for Hornsby, made in good faith by the owners of the Brooklyn club, the belief is strengthened that he already has been sold.

The Cubs and the Giants are in the best position to meet the demand of the St. Louis owners and it is believed here that John McGraw reached an understanding with the Cardinals before he left for Europe.

McGraw's statements that "Hornsby is an old man with a bad leg" were accepted as being uttered for the purpose of throwing smoke around the deal as the Giant leader has never been backward in past years about taking players who were rated as being thru.

AS A MATTER OF FACT

Being a Criticism of the Just and the Unjust in the World of Professional and Amateur Sports

BY HARRY GRADSHAW

It is a fact that the term amateur is greatly abused, and in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred it is used entirely with the wrong meaning. The majority of us take it as an athlete not as good as a professional. Suppose you stick to that definition and let me tell you of an amateur that was a bona fide world's championship and didn't care a pin for the title and who licked a majority of the best men of his time, among them the gypsy Jim Mace. His name was Tom King, a gentleman, an ardent sport, but a man who detested the professional side of sport.

He won the championship of the world from John C. Heenan, and if you search the records you will find little mention of it. It is not even mentioned as an international affair, although by virtue of all rules governing championship affairs it was as important as the Sayers-Heenan battle.

After Sayers had fought Heenan and the contest resulted in a draw, Sayers retired. Owing to the fact that Sayers did not mention any successor there was in reality no champion of England. Heenan expressed his desire to compete for the international title, but English sporting men were in a quandary who to match against the American champion. They were smarting under the unsatisfactory termination of the previous battle, and if it were possible and within the bounds of honest and legitimate sport, they wanted to see Heenan defeated.

There was this amateur pugilist, or to be more exact a boxer, at that time. He was conceded to be a marvelous fellow with his hands, and had proved his prowess in his two battles with the gypsy Jim Mace. The first he lost in 42 rounds at Goldstone, January 28, 1882, but in their second battle he defeated Mace in 21 rounds. This fight took place at Medway, November 26, 1882. Mace was a marvel at the game. He was credited with being the most expert boxer that ever lived, and the stories that we have of him even in these days substantiate this claim.

KING A WONDER

Tom King was a wonder with his fists; he was a small man to battle the giants of the ring, fighting at about 160 pounds. He was a peculiar fellow and disliked the game for whatever honors there might be in it, but he liked to box through sheer sport. He was by nature a sporting fellow; won many sculling matches and kept a string of race horses. He was a refined, friendly and a good business man. He died worth a large fortune.

"The thoughts of the sporting men."

HEENAN A BEAU BRUMMEL

King had little to find fault with so far as the gentlemanly demeanor of Heenan was concerned, for he was a real Beau Brummel. He was originally a hotel keeper in this country and his gentlemanly instincts together with his mannerisms, his dress and his prowess as a boxer made him one to be desired as an acquaintance by the celebrities of the times. He met, finally won the affections and married Adah Isaacs Menkin, beauty and famous actress of the time. He was a big handsome fellow, stood 6 feet 2 inches and weighed 190 pounds. He and his wife toured England in 1882. Previously he had won the championship of America by defeating John Morrissey, at Long Point, Canada, in eleven rounds. Morrissey was a great fighter and the decisive victory made him a hero.

The battle took place at Wadsworth, England, December 30, 1883. It lasted 21 rounds, and I have talked to men who were present at the ringside who stated that King chopped the Adonis to pieces. This is borne out by the fact that he never fought again. Neither did King. He preferred his horses and his other sports.

Roush, it is stated, was paid $18,000 last season, and demands $20,000 for next summer's toil.

In Squared Circle

MANSFIELD — Al Dundee, Mansfield, awarded newspaper decision over Midget Mike O'Dowd, Columbus, in 10 rounds; Don Baxter, lost to Frankie Roberts, Columbus, in the seventh round on a foul.

CANTON — Anthony Downey, Cincinnati, and Harry Pay, McKeesport, Pa., boxed a 10 round draw.

PHILADELPHIA — Alex Hart, Clifton Heights, Pa., won judges' decision over Freddy Jacks, England, in 10 rounds.

NEW YORK — (United Press) — Championship bouts for the world's light-heavyweight and middleweight titles probably will be staged here before the end of the year.

Tex Rickard was working today on a McTigue-Tunney bout for the light-heavyweight title and a Greb-Wilson return bout for the middleweight crown.

If McTigue refuses to sign with Tunney, Rickard said he would start to work on a bout with Georges (Carpenier) and that he was considering Battling Siki, Tommy Gibbons or Tunney as an appointment for the Frenchman.

Greb denied he had said after his bout with Tunney Monday night that "the judges had been fixed" and that he would never fight in New York.

To prove it, he said he was willing to meet Johnny Wilson, the former middleweight champion, in a return bout as soon as he has a rest.

AMONG THE CAGERS

Beaverdam defeated Harrod in a five minute overtime game. Score: 21-19.

Harrod was leading in the first half and all thru the game until the last minute of play when Capt. Lewis cased a field basket which tied the score, 15-18. In the five minutes overtime Beaverdam scored 3 points to Harrod's 1. The game was fast and well played. In the preliminary Beaverdam Girls beat Harrod Girls, 20-6. Dixon of Ada was the referee.

Record For Overtime Periods In Lima Cage Games Was Made Tuesday

A record for overtime periods in Lima basketball history was set last night at the "Y" by the L. E. & W. and Deisel-Wenner cage teams who battled five extra five-minute periods to decide the winner of one of the best games seen on a local floor for some time. The tilt was finally won by the L. E. & W. in the last minutes of play, 29-23. The victory gave the railroad men undisputed first place in the standings.

When the regular time for the end of the game came, it was found that the two teams had raced neck and neck to a 15-all score. In the first extra-time period Burgoon heaved one thru the hoop from the center of the floor, but Nensidit, of the L. E. & W., followed with a one-handed effort, again tying the score. For three more five-minute stanzas the teams fought with first one team gaining the advantage then the other, but each time ending in a tie.

In the last period Benedict caged two from the center of the floor in rapid succession and Snodgrass added another to the L. E. & W. total. The Deisels were unable to penetrate the hoop in the last period and the game went to the L. E. & W.

A star would be difficult to find from either lineup. Both teams played to their last ounce of strength to gain the coveted first position. Benedict, O'Connor, and Thompson, however, kept their team in the running with some sensational playing.

SOLAR-GARFORD

In the first game of the evening between the Solar and Garford squads who were fighting to keep out of the cellar position, the Solar came out ahead 24-10. The game was close during the first half which ended 11-6 in the Solar's favor, but Brown cut loose in the second half and tossed in a few fielders and after that his team steadily drew away from the truck builders.

LOCOS-LIMA TRUST

The third and last contest of the evening was won by the Locomotive over the Lima Trust Co. The score was 21-12. Locomotive was high scorer with six field goals.

A large crowd filled the "Y" Much interest was shown by the spectators in all the games, especially the L. E. & W.-Deisel-Wenner affair.

FRENCH OWNER WANTS RACE SERIES

NEW YORK — Before Pierre Wertheimer, French sportsman, departs for home, he hopes to have arranged definite plans with August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, for a series of races next year between his three year old champion, Epinard, and Zev, American three-year old king.

M. Wertheimer, Mr. Belmont and Harry Sinclair, owner of Zev, conferred yesterday and upon leaving for Denver Mr. Sinclair authorized the Jockey club head to act for him, whether the races should be held in this country or France depends on the comparative demands of the two nationalities.

The Frenchman owner said he would agree to enlarging the international field with the entries of Epinard, the English Derby winner which defeated both Zev and My Own at Epsom, and My Own, property of Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson.

The series may be at different distances and the international cup may be offered the winner.

A PUTTING GREEN FOR $25.00 MADE OF COTTON SEED HULLS—NEW GOLF IDEA

SAN ANGELO, Tex. — Putting greens made of cotton seed hulls—refuse from the white "gold" of the Dixie plantations—is the latest innovation in southern golf, an innovation that has not only proved its merits in a practical way, but in an economical way as well.

Cotton seed hull greens can be built at an approximate expense of 125, depending upon the size and ornamentation of the green.

The construction of greens such as exist at fashionable courses in other parts of the country entail expenditures mounting high into the thousands. At the noted Lido and Pine Valley clubs, for instance, the greens that cost something like $10,000 to build.

In some respects, of course, these greens are vastly superior to the cotton hull greens. They are more attractive to the eye, and the undulations are probably more intriguing. But they are no better to put on, and that is the important thing in considering the merits of a green. Cotton hull greens have proven so satisfactory that arrangements are being made to install them in most of the clubs in this part of the country.

President C. W. Hobbs of the local country club explains that cotton seed hull green idea in this way: "Before building the greens must be excavated deep enough to hold about six inches of crushed rock. A coating of oil or salt is then applied to kill vegetation. On top of
